President's Message

Summer's here and it's time for beaches, baseball, and barbecues. For those lucky few who will be attending, it's also time for the AGA's 59th Annual Professional Development Conference and Exposition in Orlando. The Conference is July 11-14 and features an outstanding technical program and offers 24 hours of CPE.

The Roanoke Chapter will be receiving an award and honorable mention for its website design. Special thanks to our hardworking webmaster Deanna Cox and her assistant Billy Gardner. Check it out at: <http://www.agaroonoke.org/>.

For many of us, the fiscal year end is rapidly approaching, and so too is our second professional development seminar of the year. Sometime in August we will again be partnering with GNAC to bring you a day of good food, great speakers, and the best value in CPE to be had anywhere. Many of you have already provided suggestions for subject matter and guest speakers. Thank you, and please keep the suggestions coming.

Our next scheduled meeting will be this Thursday, June 24th at the offices of the Mount Rogers Community Service Board in Wytheville. If you can make it, please email me (lharter@rfca.com) so that we can make sure we have plenty of food and drink for everyone. If you can't attend, please send me your chapter suggestions.

See you at the Meeting,
